A RESOLUTION AUTHORIZING THE EXEMPTION FROM TAXATION OF CERTAIN PROPERTY IN THE CITY OF CONCORD.

Resolved by the City Council of the City of Concord as follows :

WHEREAS, It is the policy of the city of Concord to encourage the introduction of new manufactures by the exemption of the capital invested therein for the term of ten years; and whereas Charles H. Amsden, of said Concord, the owner of certain water power and other real estate in Penacook, has erected and is about to erect and complete certain buildings to be occupied for manufacturing purposes, and has made and is about to make certain other improvements upon his water power, which improvements have not heretofore been taxed; and whereas the Whitney Electrical Instrument company is to occupy a portion of said mill for the purpose of manufacturing electrical instruments, which manufacturing is a new industry in the city of Concord; and whereas said improvements have already resulted in the erection of houses and increase in the value of real estate in the vicinity, therefore,

Resolved, By the city council of the city of Concord that all additional property invested by said Charles H. Amsden on his mill site and water privilege on the Contoocook river just west of the premises of the Concord Manufacturing company, and which have not heretofore been taxed, and the machinery, stock, and capital invested by the Whitney Electrical Instrument company, used in the building erected by the said Amsden, be and the same hereby are exempt from taxation for the period of ten years from and after the passage hereof, or for so much of said period as the said Amsden and the said Whitney Electrical Instrument company shall continue to use the same for manufacturing purposes as aforesaid; provided that the entire property hereby exempt from taxation shall not exceed $500,000; and provided also that this resolution shall not be construed to exempt any property of the said Amsden, or of the Whitney Electrical Instrument company, that has heretofore been taxed; and provided further that this resolution shall not include any dwelling or tenement house.
